

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Butler County Finance Authority Names Tyler Roark Vice President of Finance and Operations

Butler County, Ohio, September 30, 2026 – The Butler County Finance Authority (BCFA) has named Tyler Roark, CPA, its new Vice President of Finance and Operations. Roark, who serves as Assistant City Manager and Finance Director for the City of Centerville, is expected to join BCFA in mid-November 2026. He brings more than 15 years of public finance and local government experience to the role.

Roark will oversee BCFA's financial management and internal operations, including budgeting, forecasting, audits, investments, human resources, and administration of its financing programs. He will help strengthen the organization's capacity to assemble capital, prepare strategic sites, and advance development projects throughout Butler County.

"Tyler brings the financial discipline and operational experience needed to move complex projects forward," said Joshua A. Smith, BCFA President and CEO. "As BCFA continues to rapidly expand its scope of work, his knowledge and skills will be instrumental to our success."

In his current role with Centerville, Roark oversees finance, human resources, information technology, and major municipal operations. He also led development negotiations for the Cornerstone South project, coordinating public and private partners on a project expected to generate more than $85 million in private investment. As Centerville's Finance Director, he managed a $70 million investment portfolio and the city's debt activity.

Before joining Centerville in 2019, Roark spent more than seven years with the City of Hamilton. As Budget and Evaluation Manager, he helped develop and monitor the city's $400 million annual budget across all funds.

Roark is a Certified Public Accountant. He holds a Master of Accountancy from Miami University and a bachelor's degree in business administration from The Ohio State University.

About the Butler County Finance Authority

The Butler County Finance Authority is an Ohio statutory port authority whose mission is to position Butler County to accelerate investment and job creation. For additional information, visit theBCFA.org.

Media Contact

Joshua A. Smith, President & CEO
513-889-8046
Joshua@theBCFA.org